EVERYONE HAS PERSONAL AND WORK CHALLENGES

They are just a part of life, but sometimes can be overwhelming.

They can begin to interfere with the way you think, feel, interact with your family, and do your job. Because there are challenges that are too big to handle alone, your employer provides Employee Assistance to you and immediate members of your family. Services of Employee Assistance Program (EAP) are professional, confidential, and free.

WHAT CAN I BRING TO EAP?

Any situation that concerns you or a member of your family. Nothing is too big or too small. We can help you with things that are related to:

Stress	Financial
Marriage	Alcohol
Family	Drugs
Children	Grief
Anxiety	Any other personal situation
Depression

WHO WILL KNOW IF I GO TO EAP?

Be assured; every conversation you have with EAP will be completely confidential. No one will know about the issues you're working on except the EAP counselor and you. The only exception relates to situations in which the persons seeking help present a serious threat to themselves or others. In that instance EAP is obligated to report such danger to the appropriate parties. Also, if you are referred to the EAP by your supervisor or manager, your employer may request that feedback be given on your EAP progress.

WHAT WILL EAP DO?

The counselor will discuss your situation with you on a confidential basis and a decision will be made as to the best help for your situation. The counselor may provide short-term counseling or refer you to other sources of help. He or she can arrange an appointment and follow up to assure that you get the help you need.

WHO DO I CALL FOR HELP OR FOR INFORMATION?

If you would like an appointment or further details call: 706-549-6658 (or outside of Athens call 800-286-2207) between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Appointments are arranged at your convenience.
